Dear Bill:

I hope by now you are somewhat settled in your new position. I would imagine the pace is even more hectic because of the newness of the job, wanting to get briefed and meeting with your staff.

I did not want the occasion to pass without reminding you that we would welcome you at the Society's Annual Conference in Dallas in November 1987. As you know, it is our 50th Anniversary and we plan to honor all past directors of the FBI and past presidents of the Society. Clarence Kelly will be in attendance and your presence would add much to the importance of the meetings.

I recognize your busy schedule keeps you on the run, but assuming Judge Sessions is confirmed he will also attend and it would be nice if you introduced him at our Saturday business meeting. It would add that "Touch of Class" for the Golden Anniversary.

I do hope you can attend and take part in the sessions. We also hope Bill Baker will join us so the "Agency" is well represented. If there is anything I might do in connection with your plans for Dallas, do not hesitate to contact me.

I wish you continued success as Director of the CIA and hope to see you in Dallas.

With kindest personal regards,

Bob
